Dear Major O'Lear:

This is to acknowledge your letter of 14 May regarding my visit to the Academy. I found the visit, short as it was, to be very enjoyable and I did appreciate your kind remarks.

In regard to your query concerning the use of special photography for training purposes, may I suggest that you communicate directly with Major General George Keegan, Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence. I believe that if you inform General Keegan of the purposes to which you hope to use this photography he will be able to determine if it will be feasible.

Sincerely,

/s/ W. E. Colby

REPLY TO ATTN OF:

TO: Mr. William E. Colby
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Colby

Just a brief note to let you know that we greatly appreciated your recent visit to the Academy. We have shown the T.V. tape to the 900 cadets in our international politics course with very good results. Many of the cadets were disappointed that they were unable to hear you in person and ask you questions. All of the cadets who heard your presentation, whether live or on T.V., were very impressed. I believe that they now have a better appreciation of the C.I.A. and its role in the intelligence community.

We were sorry to see that our local newspaper blatantly took advantage of your courtesy and violated the ground rule of "non attribution" which you set down at the outset of your talk. We discussed the matter with the editor of the paper, but because the damage had already been done, the conversation was not very productive.

Please find attached a copy of the John Leacacos article we discussed at the Officers' Club. The article basically deals with the Kissinger Apparat at the NSC, however, Mr. Leacacos does have several comments regarding intelligence and C.I.A. The bulk of the remarks pertaining to intelligence appear on pages 196, 197, and 198.

While at the Officers' Club, you mentioned some special photographs. Would it be possible to get samples of that type of photograph? We would very much like to show such materials to the cadets during the military training phase of their studies.

Again, our thanks for taking time out from your busy schedule to visit the Academy. We hope that it will be possible for you to return to "Colorful Colorado" and the Academy in the future.

Sincerely

Richard J. O'Leary
